

Walter Stembrosky.

Walter Stembrosky, aged 28, of 23 Spruce street, West Hazleton, a miner at the No. 4 colliery of the Jeddo Highland Coal Company, died at the State Hospital at 1 o'clock this morning from a fractured pelvis. He was injured yesterday afternoon when he was caught between a prop and a fall of coal. He lived for many years at West Hazleton and has been in the employ of the Jeddo-Highland Coal Company for some time. He is survived by his father, Andrew Stembrosky and his wife and two children, Loraine and Dorothy. He was a member of the Transfiguration church.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning with a requiem high mass in the Transfiguration Church and interment in the Parish cemetery.

Walter/Wallace/Boleslaw Stambrosky obit

Clipped By:

cmoser36353094
Wed, Sep 18, 2019